1. Write the enolates which could be formed from the following ketone.

2. Give the products of the following reactions showing stereochemistry in 3-D where possible and all stereoisomers that are formed.

3. Give the mechanism of the following reaction showing all intermediates and electron-pushing arrows.

2. Show how you would accomplish the following synthesis. Include all reagents and isolated products. Use a crossed aldol condensation to start.