LinkedIn can be a powerful connecting tool if used to its fullest potential. Come and hear why you should be on LinkedIn, how to create a dynamic profile, and use LinkedIn's connectivity power to build your network and bolster your career while you are still in school. April McHugh is a career and educational counselor, with over 17 years of experience. Currently she works in Adult Career and Special Student Services (ACSSS) in the UW Division of Continuing Studies. She provides individual career counseling to adults seeking more rewarding careers, are in career transition, and/or are considering additional education. She also facilitates career planning workshops and presents on various career development and job search topics.

Feb 10, 2017 at 9:00 in 9341. Breakfast starting at 8:45 am.