According to research the alkene and hydrogen both adsorb on the metal surface, e.g., Pt, Pd, Ni or Rh. The hydrogen atoms both attach on the same face of the alkene. The reaction is a stereospecific syn addition.