

CHEMISTRY CAREER NEWSLETTER (10/04/17)

CAMPUS INFO SESSIONS/INTERVIEWS

P&G Info Session: Monday, Nov 6, 6:00-7:30pm, Rm 1315 Chemistry. Apply through BuckyNet by Oct 27 at midnight. Pizza will be served.

P&G Interviews: Tuesday, Nov 7, Rms 1104 & 1108 Chemistry. Apply through BuckyNet by Oct 27 at midnight.

JOBS

Lucigen: Lucigen is recruiting for two positions: (1) Technical Support/Product Applications and (2) Technical Support/Technical Writing. Contact Julie Kramer (jkramer@lucigen.com), Director of Marketing at the local biotech company if you are interested in either of these openings.

SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS

CIA Info Session: Wednesday, Oct 4. 5:00-6:00pm at the Memorial Union (TITU). The CIA will present an info session for students interested in internships and careers with the agency

Getting Started with Jobs & Internships in Federal Agencies: Thursday, Oct 5, 12-1 at the Memorial Union (TITU). The Federal Government offers a plethora of career and internship opportunities, but the often lengthy and confusing application process can deter students from applying. Whether you have already targeted a federal agency as an employer, or know absolutely nothing about Federal opportunities yet, this is the workshop you need to attend. You are guaranteed to gain an understanding of: the best way to navigate and apply on USAJobs, Federal Pathways opportunities for both interns and recent grads, the different types of Federal hiring, and much, much more!

The Multicultural Career Fair: Thursday, Oct 5, 4-6pm at Unions South Varsity Hall

CIA Drop Ins: Friday, Oct 6, 10am-3pm at SuccessWorks – 711 State Street, 3rd floor. This is a chance for students who wanted to attend the info session or the fair but couldn't, or who just have personal questions regarding their chances to apply to the agency, to ask questions they will never have a better chance to ask. 1:1 with a CIA recruiter.

Delta Internship Program: Delta Internship Program supports a new cohort of interns who partner with faculty and staff to improve student learning and learning environments through innovative, small-scale projects. These projects can take place at UW–Madison or beyond.

Pre-Internship Workshop: Finding a Project: Monday, Oct 9. 9:30am-11:00am. Room 117, 445 Henry Mall. Attendees will discuss the internship process and timeline, as well as potential internship projects and partners. This session is for students who do not yet have a specific project or partner in mind. Open to all graduate students and postdocs. Register here.

Pre-Internship Workshop: Developing Your Project: Wednesday, Oct 25. 9:00am-12:00pm. Location TBD. Attendees will define their internship project, develop their project plan, explore available resources, and learn more about the university's institutional review board (IRB) process that facilitates responsible research. This session is for participants who have a specific project and partner planned. Required for Spring 2018 interns. Register here.

Regional Materials and Manufacturing Network (RM2N) poster presentation: Oct 15-16. Platteville, WI. Attend and present a poster at this year's Regional Materials and Manufacturing Network (RM2N) symposium. Undergraduates through postdocs are all encouraged to apply. If you have a story of successful interaction with a company please consider sharing that in a 5 min "project talk". Please learn more, register, and sign up for posters and/or talks at <http://wiscmat.org/2017-fall-symposium/>. Deadline to assure a poster/speaking slot is Oct. 6, 2017.

Successful Interviewing for Non-Academic Positions: Tuesday, Oct 10, 4:00 - 5:30 pm. Room 159, Education Building. In this workshop, you will learn what to expect outside of academia, review a structure for crafting interview responses that illustrate your experiences, receive tips on how to prepare a job talk, and discuss effective nonverbal communication. Register here.

Immigration and Visa Seminar: Wednesday, Oct 11. 3:00pm-4:30pm. Ebling Lecture Hall, 1220 Microbial Sciences. Seminar with Veronica Sustic, JD, of Lotfi Law, regarding current immigration policies and information on the visa process for international students, postdocs and faculty

You're Researching What? Crafting a 3-minute Talk that Appeals to the Public: Thursday, Oct 19. 5:30-6:30pm. Room 6191, Helen C. White Hall. This workshop, sponsored by the Writing Center and the Graduate School Office of Professional Development, will help graduate students from all disciplines to prepare an accessible, intriguing three-minute talk about their research. More information here

Mellon-Wisconsin Dissertation Writing Camp: The UW-Madison Writing Center and the UW-Madison Graduate School are pleased to sponsor a Mellon-Wisconsin Dissertation Writing Camp during the 2018 Winter intersession. The camp will run from January 8 - January 12, 2018. Acceptance in the program is competitive, and participation is limited to 20 dissertators. The deadline for application is Friday, October 27 at 12:00pm (noon). Camp information and application instructions can be found here.

VOLUNTEER/OUTREACH

Walk the Walk: Friday, Oct 13 at 2:00 PM. Hosted by The Morgridge Center for Public Service, Walk the Walk is an annual tour of social and environmental justice organizations in the UW-Madison neighborhood. Students participate in one of four themed walking tours to learn from nonprofits near campus that are advancing progressive and equitable change. Each tour begins in the basement at Ogg Hall. Check here for more information and registration. Registration is encouraged, not required. Students who register by Oct. 6 will receive free business cards. For special transportation accommodation, email events@morgridge.wisc.edu. See attachment

ARTICLE

7 Ways to Transform Your Resume Today by Isabel Thottam More information

MISC

Survey: Impostor Phenomenon: Researchers at Washington State University are conducting a study to better understand the experience of "impostor phenomenon" among a wide demography of individuals in Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) and medical/biomedical fields in the United States. They want researchers and professionals from a wide demography in STEM and medicine to participate -- doctoral students, postdoctoral scholars, new and established faculty, training physicians, physician-scientists, residents, and those who have left the field. The link to the survey with more details as well as contact information can be found here.

Graduate Women in Science Fall Welcome Meeting: Thursday, Oct 5. 6:00pm. 1152 Mechanical Engineering Building. See attachment for more information. RSVP here

University Health Services (UHS) Counseling: UHS offers a safe and confidential environment with a variety of support services available free of charge and open to all graduate students. These include individual, couple/partner, and group counseling, as well as stress management and psychiatry services. See attachment for a variety of services provided by UHS.